LEARNING GOAL:

As an aspiring business owner specializing in Financial Management, I aim to integrate the Program Educational Objectives (PEOs) of my degree into my academic journey. This semester, I will focus on mastering the principles of operations, governance, human resource strategies, international trade, monetary systems, and investment management. I will embody the FCPC core values of Faith in God, Creativity, Perseverance, Collaboration, Intelligence, Altruism, and Nationalism, while strengthening essential life skills such as problem-solving, leadership, effective communication, and critical decision-making.

My SMART goals for high academic performance and meta-competence this 2nd Semester of academic year 2026-2027 are:

SPECIFIC	MEASURABLE
I will achieve 1.25 to 1.00 proficiency in all academic requirements including quizzes, exams, case studies, research papers, and presentations across my enrolled subjects. I will monitor my progress through instructor/professors' feedback, peer collaboration, and self-assessment of my analytical and communication skills.	I will demonstrate mastery of operations strategies, governance principles, HR practices, global trade dynamics, monetary policies, and investment techniques by actively participating in discussions, completing all tasks, and applying theories to real-world scenarios. Success will be measured through consistent high grades and improved confidence in applying financial concepts.

ATTAINABLE	RELEVANT
To attain these goals, I will engage in advanced readings, utilize textbooks and scholarly articles, access financial databases, and collaborate with classmates on group projects. I will practice effective time management, seek guidance from professors, and apply structured study techniques to strengthen my academic performance.	These goals align with the BSBA Financial Management program objectives and prepare me to become a competent, ethical, and socially responsible business owner. By applying knowledge in operations, governance, HR, trade, monetary systems, and investments, I will utilize my acquired learnings and skills set for my future business and to contribute to national economic growth.
TIME-BOUND
I will accomplish these goals within the 1st semester of Academic Year 2026–2027 by adhering to a structured study plan, meeting deadlines, and conducting regular evaluations of my progress. By the end of the semester, I aim to demonstrate academic excellence, professional readiness, and preparedness for advanced financial management courses.
